

PAVE CENTRE NEWSLETTER

FEBRUARY 2024

Thriving Classes and Exciting Additions!

Classes are bustling once again at PAVE Centre, with Restaurant Server and Security Guard courses in full swing. Students are demonstrating unwavering dedication to their studies, and we're thrilled to have such a motivated group with us. Excitement is building as we eagerly anticipate the launch of our Art Program, which is set to commence soon. Scott McKinley, the art program creator, is currently in Jamaica, and laying the groundwork for this incredible opportunity that will be available to PAVE students. We can't wait to see the creativity and talent that will emerge from this exciting addition to our curriculum!

BEST & BRIGHTEST OF THE MONTH

Employee Spotlight

Meet Donae Anderson, serving as the Administrative Assistant for PAVE Centre Jamaica the past six months. In her role, Donae plays a crucial part in ensuring the smooth operation of various aspects including staff management, student support, and building maintenance. Donae prioritizes keeping God at the center of her actions. She admires Ms. Nasha Johnson, the hardworking Director of Operations, for her unwavering dedication to PAVE. Motivated by her son, Azeem Duncan, Donae sees her position at PAVE as an opportunity for personal growth and advancement for her family. Looking ahead, she envisions herself as a successful businesswoman, aspiring to own two pharmacies. Donae's advice to others embarking on their career journey echoes her own approach: strive tirelessly for your goals exerting your utmost effort, and always remember to walk with faith.

Meet Sheriann Natty honored as the Student of the Month at PAVE, where she is currently studying to become a Kitchen Cook. She finds the field both fascinating and engaging as it allows her to continuously learn about food and catering while ensuring guest satisfaction. Upon completing her studies, Sheriann aims to secure employment in the kitchen cook industry where she can showcase her skills and eventually establish her own business. She hopes to inspire others to pursue their goals by showcasing the opportunities available at PAVE. Sheriann attributes her selection as Student of the Month to her positive personality, respectful attitude towards her peers and teachers, and her eagerness to progress. Despite being currently unemployed, she is prepared to tackle any task assigned to her with enthusiasm and dedication.

Student of the Month

